

I am in favor of the ARRL's propose license restructuring as I feel that it is for the betterment of HAM radio and should attract additional newcomers. Continued testing for morse code at 5WPM at the upper license level is also favorable to me.